

Oakland Will Be Well Represented in the League.

Grand Testimonial Concert to the Reliance Club.

TALK ABOUT THE TURF AND CLUB.

Annual Exhibition and Minstrel Show of the Acme Club.

The usual winter interest is being taken in indoor sports. In the clubs handball and indoor baseball receive the most attention, while both the athletic clubs are preparing for their annual entertainments. That Oakland will be represented in the California baseball league next season is shown by the election of J. T. Moran to the presidency and the admission of J. Cal Ewing's team. The fact that the club is to have a home ground will add much to the success of the organization.

RELIANCE CLUB.

As the date of the grand concert draws nearer the interest of the Reliance members becomes centered in this one event. The arrangements are fast approaching completion, and in a few days the program will be announced.

As this will be the first time the Orpheus and Hughes Clubs have ever joined forces in a concert, the result is eagerly looked for by the lovers of music. These are Oakland's foremost musical organizations, and their members have for years taken a prominent part in the musical entertainments given on both sides of the bay.

Among the artists of these clubs are numbered some of the best vocalists in California. The program will consist for the most part of solos, choruses by each club and united choruses, besides selections by the club orchestra. This entertainment will no doubt be the grandest affair of the kind ever held in Oakland.

Jellett Brothers, Williamson and Mahoney, and Carlton and Downey, the club handball experts, are getting in as much practice as possible in anticipation of the proposed handball tournament. That these teams will give a good account of themselves there can be no doubt, as they are fine players and all in superb condition.

Few, if any, of the club's wheelmen will ride in either the San Jose or the San Francisco indoor tournament. There is a certain apathy in cycling circles which does not reflect much credit on the powers that be. With all the good men in the club it would seem a few could be found who would train for these events and not leave the club without representation.

The enthusiasm over indoor baseball has become so great that a team is being organized to play in a minor league if one should be formed next season. There are a number of excellent players in the club, and if a league is organized the team put in to sport the black and maroon will be a good one.

GOLF NOTES.

The wet weather has set a damper on golf enthusiasts for the present. The links have been in such a soft and muddy condition of late that it has been impossible for the players to get out for even light practice.

The rain, however, merely means a postponement of active work. As soon as the grounds are in condition once more the players will all resume their sticks and practice the art of cleeks and strokes.

The return series of match contests will be played between the Oakland and San Francisco golf clubs during the month of February. The exact date of these games has not yet been determined, but the state of the weather will probably have some influence in fixing them. The Oakland Golf Club has a bad defeat to its credit which the players are anxious to wipe out at the next meeting with the San Francisco team. It was clearly demonstrated in the previous two games with the San Francisco team that the Oakland players were in want of more practice. The showing they made at home, though, was a very fair one. In the first meet the home team was successful by a score of two up. It took a trip across the bay to convince the home team that harder practice is necessary.

CYCLING.

Frank Waller, the "Flying Dutchman," who began his racing career in this city, was defeated in a fifty-mile race recently at Madison Square Garden, N. Y., by Henry Elkes of Glen Falls, N. Y. Elkes has made a wonderful record on indoor tracks. He will ride at the San Francisco indoor tournament next month.

An Eastern cycling paper contained the following notice recently:

"STEVENS VS. DOWNING.

"Orlando Stevens and Hardy Downing will ride a match race in San Francisco at the Mechanics Pavilion on Monday, Jan. 2."

It seems to be the impression in the East that all our winter racing is held indoors. The race referred to is to take place at San Jose, Sunday, January 22d.

The woman playwright who was responsible for the "Twig of Laurel," the play in which Eddie Bald made such a dismal failure, intimates that Eddie is a poor actor. She is now suing the men who backed Bald for closing the season, thereby reducing her profits, as she was in on the royalties.

Frank D. Elwell, the veteran track builder, has been awarded the contract for the track to be used at the indoor meet to be held in San Francisco in February. Elwell designed and built the famous Velodrome track upon which so many world's records were broken. He thoroughly understands his business, and the fact that he is to build the track will give both the riders and the public more confidence in the meet, and reduce the possibilities of accident to the minimum.

The race meet of the Garden City Wheelmen has been again postponed. It is now scheduled to take place on Sunday, January 22d. While postponed events, as a usual thing, lose their attractiveness and draw small crowds, the match race between Hardy Downing and Orlando Stevens promises to be of such an interesting character that a good attendance is assured.

In the amateur events "Jack" Wing should be the shining light if form and experience count, for he is by far the best man in the amateur ranks on the Coast.

A few days ago it was announced that Jimmy Michaels had reconsidered his plans to turn jockey and would stick to wheeling, riding in San Francisco in February, but from New Orleans, where he now is, comes the statement that he purposes to try his luck at sliding and will make his debut on the Crescent City track this week.

BASEBALL.

The California Baseball League has been thoroughly organized at last, all conflicting interests have been harmonized, and the outlook for the coming season is the best in years.

Six cities were represented at the meeting held in Eugene Bert's office and franchises were granted to one club from each of the cities. They and their representatives were as follows: San Francisco, Henry Harris, and T. F. Bonnet; Santa Cruz, O. L. Tuttle; Watsonville, E. Struve; San Jose, A. S. de la Rosa and George Borchers; Oakland, J. Cal Ewing; Sacramento, E. L. Kripp.

The organization was perfected by the election of officers as follows: President, J. T. Moran of this city; vice-president, E. F. Bert; secretary and treasurer, T. F. Bonnet.

Manager Ewing has leased the grounds known as Freeman's Park at Golden Gate where morning games will be played every Sunday. The grounds will be very much improved by being plowed up and put in first class shape. The grand-stand will be rebuilt so as to have a seating capacity of 1,500 people.

The completion of the San Pablo electric line will give excellent street car service with an eight minute ride from Seventh street and Broadway to the park.

ACME AFFAIRS.

Active preparations are now being made for the annual show which is to be given in the Macdonough Theater on the 22d of February. Members who are to take part are quietly at work getting ready for the first rehearsal which will be held in the near future. A number of new and novel features are promised by those in charge. Some of those who are to take part have in store a surprise or two which will be made features of the entertainment.

H. Hipkins, leader of the orchestra, is getting his men in trim for the show. About eight more men will be added to the orchestra and then active work will be commenced on the music to be used in the entertainment. The addition to the orchestra will make it one of the largest on this side of the bay. For the time organized the boys play exceptionally well.

While playing handball recently Treasurer W. H. L. Hynes sprained his ankle and has now given up the game.

Harry Wagor is looking for the man who started the report that his sight was defective and that he occasionally saw "queer" $20 gold pieces.

Since the cold snap set in hot bouillon has been served at the sideboard.

Much interest is being taken in the proposed handball tournament which is under consideration. It is the plan to have this contest open to the clubs of Alameda county only. This will be the first tournament pulled off in the county and should prove a very interesting affair.

The gymnasium presents an animated appearance on class night, as the classes are large and the boys all intent upon becoming experts.

Applications continue to come in quite plentifully, and resignations are few and far between. This indicates a healthy growth, which is a pleasure to the directors.

Captain Arthur Agnew has begun to stir things up in the wheeling department, and promises to have some good men ready for the next road race. The club will not have many representatives in the indoor tournament, but with A. T. Smith in good condition the club colors will be in the fight.

THE RACES.

Fourteen head of two-year-olds belonging to Garnet Ferguson and bred at the Fergusons' Kingston stud, just outside of Lexington, Ky., arrived recently at the Oakland track safe and sound. Ollie Johnson attended to the shipping. Nearly all the youngsters are by Imp. St. George and Prince Royal, and are reported to be a fine looking lot.

At a meeting of the board of stewards of the California Jockey Club held Monday night Jockey Gouin was ruled off for life.

For in and out running the entries of Myth and Hugh Penny will hereafter not be received at Oakland, and H. Shields will be restricted to Galen Brown's stable.

Joe Piggott piloted ten of the thirty-six winners last week, thereby carrying off the riding honors. Henry Martin was in front seven times, Charley Thorpe five and Cash Sloan three.

The victories of long shots were a feature of the last meeting at the Oakland track. Caspar was the longest priced winner, he coming home first at odds of 100 to 1. El Estro, Aluminum, Nina, Olinthus, Sly, Myth, Coda, The Miller, Highland Ball and Martello were among the other outsiders to land.

It would appear that a great mistake has been made in the action taken by the judges in ruling Caspar and owner Bosoecke from the Oakland track.

Following is the record of the sixteen leading jockeys for the year just closed:

SWINDLER IS CONVICTED OF FRAUD

H. M. Goodrich was convicted in Judge Larue's court in East Oakland yesterday of working a confidence game on unsuspecting persons. He claims to be an agent for the Majestic Art Company of Boston and New York. His plan of operation is to obtain a photograph from a person agreeing for the sum of $1 to make a large water color picture. At the same time he exhibits samples of the kind of work done. As the price is very low many persons are induced to invest in one of the pictures. After the picture is made and he brings it around to collect then he gets in his fine play. He will sell the picture only on condition that the purchaser also buys the frame in which it is set. The price of his frame varies from $3 to $4.

Mrs. Catherine Durey of Elmhurst objected to this form of extortion and refused to pay for the picture and frame. When she asked for the return of her photograph which she had given to Goodrich for a copy he refused to return it. She then had him arrested for witholding the photograph.

Deputy District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes prosecuted the case and secured a conviction. Sentence will be passed Thursday.

Other complaints of women who have been swindled are now coming in since his conviction. Mrs. Durey has filed a complaint against him for the same cause.

WEDNESDAY.....JANUARY 11, 1899.

The Cubans have quickly become Americanized. Ninety per cent of the male population is said to be already looking for office.

Twenty-eight trains were held up in the United States last year, says the Sacramento Bee. That's nothing—there were more than that held up Monday night alone in Sacramento while the inaugural ball was in progress.

The action of the Senate in limiting the duration of speeches during the Nicaraguan canal debate shows a desire to get to the crucial question as quickly as possible. Judging by the way things are going, it does not seem possible that the project can lose, for the favor with which it has been received all over the country will doubtless have a good effect upon the Senators.

Senator Mason's proposition that no people should ever be governed without their consent does not always work. But for the civilizing influences of conquerors, Africa to-day would be in as utter a state of barbarism as it was a hundred years ago, and history can relate many a similar instance. The best thing that can be done for some people is to take hold of them by the scruff of the neck and make them do what is right.

The recent storm goes on record as one of the most severe the State has experienced for ten years past. Although the rain did lots of good, as much cannot be said for the wind, for, on the contrary, it blew down lots of small structures, hurt many a tree, and, in fact, did all sorts of minor damage. Up in the mountains the snowstorm has been so heavy that despite the big snow-plows of the Southern Pacific it is hard work to keep the line clear.

PROSPERITY AND THE RAINS.

From these latest rains California will arise like a giant refreshed. It is impossible to calculate the amount of good they will do every interest of the State. The rain is generous, ample, universally distributed and abounding. The preceding rains of the present winter season, although so slightly tardy as to awaken anxiety, were sufficiently abundant and timely to meet the requirements of the agricultural and other interests, and to revive and repair the wide variety of enterprises that were languishing under last year's drouth. Hence the present largess of the elements is over measure and is all clear gain.

No other State in the Union possesses the faculty of California for responding to favorable conditions of productiveness. The exhaustless fertility of its soils, together with the continuous vivifying influences of its climates, produce results that amaze the world. The character of California's people possesses corresponding powers of resiliency and energy. Possibly this characteristic entails a corresponding capacity for excessive depression. Results have proved that even last year, during one of the completest and most extensive periods of drouth known to the State, with the exception of certain limited areas and two or three especially exposed departments of agriculture, the productions of the State, measured by market value, very nearly approached the normal standard. The costs of the drouth were registered in the withholding of anticipated profits to the farmers and to business interests, rather than in an actual diminution of average profits. If it were a lean year it was so only relatively.

Now comes a fat year. It comes most opportunely. California is on the threshold of an unprecedented advance in the demand for and the recognition of all the products of its favored climate and teeming soil. The markets of the world, both to the eastward and across the seas to the doors of our new possessions in the Orient, are open and suppliant to the State of California. This fact, with the assurance which the auspicious opening of the planting season brings, guarantees to every business and industrial interest as well as to the farmers a phenomenal and it may well be hoped a never again to be interrupted year of prosperity.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S RECRUDESCENCE.

Faithful and tender souls who have been in their thought walking up and down the country, like Satan before the Lord, seeking vestiges of that lost star in the political firmament, Grover Cleveland, may take heart of hope. Like the vanished Andree, he had been occasionally vaguely heard from. The Associated Press now has run him to earth at last. To a representative of that indefatigable and omnipresent organization he has vouchsafed an utterance. He has grasped an expression of his disapproval of the actuality of expansion.

The President who hauled down the American flag from Hawaii and then was promptly hauled down by the American people to the bottom of the hole containing the flagstaff, does not approve, forsooth, of the national policy of his Presidential successors, nor of certain events that have lately persisted in transpiring in the Orient. So thoroughly galvanized has the Unlamented Departed become by reason of these events that he has emerged from the language of diplomacy and of what his friend, the late editor, Charles A. Dana, called his language of the dictionary, and dropped into some everyday phraseology.

"The killing of natives," ex-President Cleveland says, "has been a feature of expansion since expansion began, and our imperialistic enthusiasm should not be checked by the prospective necessity of destroying a few hundred thousand Filipinos. This should only be regarded as one stage in a transcendentally great movement, a mere incident in its progress. Of course, some unprepared souls would then be lost before we had the opportunity of Christianizing them, but surely those of our clergymen who have done so much to encourage expansion could manage that difficulty."

These observations of the extinguished statesman betray a tincture of the old-school Presbyterian theology. Not for nothing has he established his domestic hearth and the mausoleum of his political aspirations under the droppings of the Princetonian sanctuary and of the baccalaureate sermons of President Francis L. Patton. His concern for the immortal part of Aguinaldo's hypothetical followers does credit to his latter-end theological education. Speaking after the manner of men, we might also concede that it does credit to his intellect. There is an unsuspected and astonishing flavor of wit in this utterance of ex-President Cleveland, considering its source. At the same time, alas! there is also a touch of irreverence bordering on ribaldry. Mr. Cleveland's manners certainly have not improved at Princeton. His slur upon the cloth at large is likely to get his new sponsor, President Patton, into embarrassments. So far as the ex-President himself is concerned, we think he may safely be left to the tender mercies of the great preponderance of American ministers whom he has thus attacked. He is in a fair way to be remanded to his mausoleum without the benefit of clergy.

The oft-attempted plan to obtain a State residence at Sacramento for the Governor is in evidence again, and those behind it say that they are going to make a more determined effort than ever before on the proposition. The matter is one that on the face of it does not appear to admit of much argument, for it is certainly a case of "small potatoes" when the Governor of a rich and prosperous State like California has to run the gauntlet of the boarding-houses while in attendance upon his official duties. The expense of the mansion would be but a mere trifle compared with the good it would accomplish.

Another delay has occurred in inaugurating our twenty-minute ferry service, and although it is a disappointment not to get it right now, still there is a satisfaction in knowing that the project has simply been postponed and not abandoned. As regards the announcement by the railroad people that there has not been a very large increase in recent years in the traffic between the two sides of the bay, we would say that that is the very reason why we are seeking an improved ferry service. The better the facilities for travel, the more the business will be diverted in this direction.

If Col. Berry does not resurrect that Red Cross fund pretty soon the ladies of the Society ought to take him into the courts. The cool insolence with which he declines to make any statement as to the balance in hand or as regards what he has done with the money shows the manner of man he is, and the members of the organization ought to make him sing in another key by applying for a warrant for his arrest on a charge of embezzlement.

Straws may show which way the wind blows, but some of those straw Senatorial votes the papers have been running don't indicate much, judging by the actual proceedings at Sacramento.

Old Time Pantomimist Dead.

MRS. MENTEL ALLOWED BAIL

Attorney Foote Scores a Point for the Woman.

Says She Can Never Be Convicted of High Crime.

Mrs. Anna Mentel, who shot and killed her husband in Alameda, has been admitted to bail in the sum of $20,000. She will probably be released from custody to-morrow, when her father will appear before Judge Hall with bondsmen to give the required amount.

The motion of Attorney W. W. Foote to have his client admitted to bail was granted by the court, despite the objections made by District Attorney Allen.

When the case was called Mr. Foote made his motion, stating that he believed that from the evidence in the case Mrs. Mentel could not be convicted of murder in the first degree, and he therefore asked that she be admitted to bail in any reasonable sum which the court saw fit to impose. To further strengthen his motion, Mr. Foote rehearsed some of the evidence in the case, stating that the defendant had voluntarily given herself up after the shooting and that the testimony of the physician who examined her at the hospital showed that there were bruises upon her arm and body which must have been produced by a struggle.

He also referred to an agreement with District Attorney Smoot, who prosecuted the case at the preliminary hearing, saying that it had been admitted by the prosecution that a conviction of the highest order was not possible.

"Without casting any reflections on Justice Morris," said Mr. Foote, "I do not think it is exercising very good judgment for a country justice to hold the defendant without bail when advised by the District Attorney that bail was permissible."

District Attorney Allen admitted that Mr. Smoot had at first agreed that the case was one in which bail might be accepted, but he contended that later developments in the case rendered it highly probable that a jury who would try the case would bring in a verdict in the highest degree. He said that the fact that Mentel had been found lying with one hand in his pocket and resting upon a bundle went to show that he had been carrying the bundle on his left arm and had made no struggle. Thus he contended the case would be one of crime committed in the heat of passion.

Judge Hall said he had made a study of the evidence in the case and had come to the conclusion that it was one in which bail could be allowed." He then fixed the bail at $20,000.

Mrs. Mentel was then arraigned on the charge of murder. Court Clerk Mock called: "Anna Mentel, please step forward."

She obeyed the summons, walking forward with calm self possession.

After reading the information the Clerk asked: "What is your plea, guilty or not guilty?"

"Not guilty," said the prisoner in a firm, clear voice.

Attorney Foote then asked for a continuance of one week, as the associate counsel in the case, Senator Earl, was detained in Sacramento temporarily. The continuance was granted.

Mrs. Mentel seemed very much pleased when the court allowed her to be admitted to bail. She smiled and shook hands with her attorney. A heavy load seemed to have been lifted from her.

OAKLAND BANK ELECT OFFICERS.

A. A. Moore Resigns From Union Savings Directorate.

The banks of Oakland are in a first-rate financial condition, and have just closed a year of prosperity. This fact was made apparent yesterday afternoon, when the annual meetings of directors of several of the institutions were held.

The elections of directors and officers in the various banks yesterday resulted as follows:

First National—P. E. Bowles, president; G. W. McNear, vice-president; L. G. Burpee, cashier; directors—G. W. McNear, E. W. Runyon, W. P. Jones, Wallace Everson, L. C. Morehouse, P. E. Bowles, W. H. Chickering, L. G. Burpee, G. W. McNear Jr.

Union National Bank—Thomas Prather, president; J. West Martin, vice-president; C. E. Palmer, cashier; W. H. High, assistant cashier; directors—J. West Martin, J. C. Adams, C. E. Palmer, E. F. Adams, R. S. Farrelly, Thomas Prather, Shelby Martin.

Farmers' and Merchants' Bank—Edson F. Adams, president; C. E. Palmer, vice-president; James C. McKee, cashier; directors—R. S. Farrelly, San Leandro; A. W. Schaefer, Mount Eden; Samuel Bell McKee, Oakland; William H. Taylor, Oakland; H. H. Pitcher, Livermore; John Charles Adams, Oakland; H. F. Gordon, Oakland; F. S. Osgood, Oakland; Charles E. Palmer, Oakland; W. H. Bailey, Oakland; Edson F. Adams, Oakland.

In the Union Savings Bank one change in the directorate was made. A. A. Moore resigned as a director and in his place A. E. H. Cramer was elected. The officers are: J. West Martin, president; W. G. Henshaw, vice president; A. E. H. Cramer, cashier. Directors—J. West Martin, William G. Henshaw, Thos. Prather, R. S. Farrelly, A. E. H. Cramer, C. E. Palmer, H. W. Meek, Hermen A. Tubbs, Thos. Crellin, Shelby F. Martin, F. W. Henshaw.

The called meeting of the directors of the Central Bank was adjourned until a later date. No officers were elected.

The California Bank directors will meet upon Saturday, January 21st.

The result of the meeting of the Oakland Bank directors was published in last evening's Tribune.

No Bids for the Hose Tower.

The Board of Public Works met this morning. Messrs Clement and Thomas were present, Mr. Dow was absent.

A number of demands were allowed.

Bids were to have been opened for the construction of the bell and hose tower at the West Oakland Engine House but up to 11 o'clock no bids had been received.

Secretary Thomas was then instructed to re-advertise for bids to be opened next Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Doctor Gave Hood's

Reduced in Weight by Serious Illness—Gaining Fast by Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"The grip left my system in a very weak state. I had fallen off in weight from 140 to 119 pounds. I called on my doctor to give me something to build me up. He advised me to try a change of climate and also gave me Hood's Sarsaparilla, with the remark, 'that is the best,' and that I would not need any other medicine. After I had taken the first bottle I found myself greatly improved. I procured another bottle and also a box of Hood's Pills and I was soon perfectly well. I have since taken Hood's Sarsaparilla as a tonic and blood medicine and have always found it good. My husband and little daughter have also taken it with benefit. I have found Hood's Pills an excellent cathartic." MRS. C. F. ROTH, Vernon, Sutter Co., via Nicolaus, California.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier. Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5.

IMPORTANT MINE SUIT IS DECIDED.

Two Millions in Stock of a Nevada Company Involved.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Judge Dunne of the Circuit Court, at the hearing of the petition filed by Thomas G. Stevens, one of the stockholders of the Consolidated Copper Mining Company of Eureka, Nev., granted a temporary injunction to prevent the alleged wrongful voting of some 72,118 shares of stock at the meeting of the stockholders today.

The petition was directed against William Whalen, the originator of the company, and sets up that under a contract entered into in 1897 between Stevens, Whalen and Charles Law the shares in question were given into the custody of Albert Barnum, to be held in escrow, on the understanding that they should only be voted with the consent of all three partners.

The complaint still further alleges that while the petitioner was absent an alleged transfer of the shares was made by which Whalen claims to have the authority to vote them as his individual property, which he asserts they are.

The court's order orders the trustee to retain possession of the shares until the matter is fully investigated and a settlement can be made. The value of the stock involved is estimated at nearly $2,000,000.

BRANDES ARRAIGNED IN SUPERIOR COURT.

W. A. Brandes was arraigned in Judge Hall's department of the Superior Court this morning to plead to the charge of having murdered his 13-year-old daughter in Berkeley. Brandes took matters with the same stolid manner in which he conducted himself during his preliminary hearing. He was in consultation with his attorneys up to the time his case was called. His appearance is practically the same as it has been since his confinement except that he has a several weeks' growth of beard which gives him an unkempt appearance.

When his case was called the prisoner stepped forward and answered to the name of William A. Brandes. The information charging him with the murder of his daughter Lillian was then read to him.

Attorney Sawyer asked for one week for his client to plead. This was granted and Brandes was escorted back to the county jail.

TWO SAN PEDRO FISHERMEN DROWN.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 11.—During the storm yesterday Orlando Vidovich and B. Felando, Italian fishermen, put out from San Pedro in the sloop Gnato to look after nets. The sloop was capsized and the two men were drowned. Vidovich was well known and owned several sloops, and did the largest fish business at San Pedro.

RELIANCE WHEELMEN ELECT OFFICERS.

The Reliance Club wheelmen held their regular annual meeting last night at the club rooms and elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: President, E. B. Jerome; secretary and treasurer, A. F. Cornwall; captain, A. P. Deacon; first lieutenant, Jack Pfush; second lieutenant, Al Parrott; bugler, Arthur Magill, Jr.

The captain, president, and first lieutenant were elected delegates to the California Associated Cycling Clubs.

Edward Meek's Funeral.

The funeral of Edward Meeks, the Temescal capitalist, was held yesterday from his late residence on Columbus avenue. Rev. F. J. Fluno of the Christian Science Church conducted the services. The remains were interred at Mountain View cemetery.

NOBLE LABORS OF TWO WOMEN.

Recognition of Their Work in Port Rico.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Margaret Livingston Chanler and Anna Bouling, two women who served as nurses in Porto Rico during the war, have been recommended for medals of honor and the thanks of Congress. They landed in Ponce July 31st, and the same day began nursing American and Spanish sick. Miss Chanler, from her own purse, established a hospital for American officers, and as the number of sick grew, hired another and another until she had three hospitals in operation at her own expense.

In September she turned these hospitals over to the Government trained nurses, having first provided for their rental and running expenses.

The two brave women then went to Cosmo, nursing the sick there, and later to San Juan, and as soon as San Juan was under the American flag, started a hospital there. General Miles says their conduct was most commendable and praiseworthy.

"Such noble and generous acts, performed under circumstances of great embarrassment and danger of contracting fatal diseases prevalent at that time," he says, "our Government should recognize, and I recommend that a proper medal should be presented to these two women, and in the case of Miss Chanler, on account of her contributing so largely and generously from her own private funds, without the least hope of ever being remunerated I further recommend that the matter be brought to the attention of Congress for such action as it may deem advisable."

The suggestion is endorsed by Secretary Alger, who recommended suitable action by Congress.

It is probable that the two women will be given medals and the thanks of Congress.

SAN DIEGO GETS A GOOD SOAKING.

The County Experiences the Heaviest Rainfall in Two Years.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 11.—The storm which commenced at noon here yesterday was the hardest and most general downpour throughout the county which has occurred within the past two years. The storm was a steady downpour up to 7 P. M., when for half an hour it was a veritable cloud-burst. The rainfall in the city for the storm was 1.31 inches, making 3.11 inches for the season, against 4.98 for the total season last year. The heaviest rainfall of the storm in this vicinity was at Cuyamaca Dam, where 3.60 inches fell in eighteen hours.

Small washouts occurred on the National City and Otay and Santa Fe roads, but trains are running today.

TWO TALES OF A BLOODY ENCOUNTER.

Philip Palm was a late riser in the lodging department of the city prison this morning. He had a bandaged head, a cut face and a nose which showed quite an abrasion.

Palm attracted attention last night by running along the street in scant attire. He was taken to the city jail by Officer Stahl, where he told the story that he had been cruelly beaten in the Franklin lodging house at the corner of Ninth and Franklin streets. He was then taken to the Receiving Hospital, where his injuries were dressed.

Later he returned to the jail as a lodger. He told the story that he had been beaten in an inhuman manner.

E. Ward, the manager of the lodging house, tells a different story. He says that shortly before midnight he heard the noise of a fight in a section of the house and went to the scene to see what was the cause of the disturbance. He found, he says, a man named Hagan lying on a cot with Palm bending over him punching him and striking him in the face.

CHOATE'S NAME IS SENT TO THE SENATE.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The President today sent these nominations to the Senate:

State—Joseph H. Choate of New York to be Embassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Great Britain.

Treasury—Charles H. Brickenstein of Colorado to be Surveyor of Customs at Denver.

Robert Burns' Anniversary Concert, Wednesday evening, Jan. 25th.

Socialist Labor Party.

The Socialist Labor party will take an active interest in the coming city campaign. A call has been issued for a mass convention to be held in Grand Army Hall this evening. It is the intention to place candidates in the field for the following offices: Mayor, City Attorney, City Engineer, Auditor, Treasurer, four Councilmen-at-large, one Councilman from each of the seven wards, and seven members of the Board of Education.

Associated Charities.

Owing to the storm there was no quorum present at the meeting of the directors of the Associated Charities last evening. The meeting was postponed until next Monday evening.

Bank Commissioners.

The State Bank Commissioners were in Oakland today on official business. They went to Haywards this afternoon

HERO HOBSON AT HONOLULU.

Public Honors for the Man Who Sank the Merrimac.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—The steamer Mariposa arrived from Australia and Honolulu today. She brought a large number of sick soldiers. The Associated Press correspondent at Honolulu sends the following advices:

HONOLULU, Jan. 4.—Lieutenant Hobson passed through here on December 31st, on his way to join the Manila fleet.

He was entertained at lunch by Special Agent and Mrs. Sewall at the American Legation. There was an impromptu public reception at the Y. M. C. A. and later again at the Officers' Club, and a popular demonstration at the wharf.

Independence Park will at once be abandoned by the United States military department. It is there that the big hospital established last August has been located. The patients remaining in the wards, about twenty in number, will be moved to the new hospital at Buena Vista, in Nuuanu valley.

Three of the round-the-horn sugar fleet are in port. They are the St. Francis, W. F. Babcock and Will Scott. These vessels are chartered in the names of different plantation agencies, but this is merely for convenience, as by agreement each agency will be represented in each cargo. The bulk of the sugar crop this year goes to the trust. The annexation of the Islands, with the probability that the navigation laws will soon be extended to them, compelling traffic between here and any part of the United States coast trade to be carried on only in American bottoms, has complicated the problem of getting sugar around the horn. None but American vessels have been chartered for this trade. But the number of the available American vessels is limited. So by arrangement the sugar of the different agencies will be distributed among the vessels to meet the convenience of the trust, which is the purchaser.

The British steamship Tarter arrived yesterday, eleven days from Yokohama with 704 Japanese immigrants and a quantity of freight. The British ship Anamabra arrived yesterday, seventy-eight days from Liverpool. She experienced very bad weather, gales and heavy seas, and was obliged to put into Montevideo in distress for repairs. From Montevideo she experienced bad weather, and was eighty-one days in making this port.

DINGLEY MAY YET RECOVER.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The condition of Representative Dingley this morning was practically unchanged. He is still extremely weak, but the fact that he has been able to hold his own in the past two or three days, without any appreciable change for the worse, gives ground for encouragement to his physicians and family.

POLICE HUNTING FOR ESTERHAZY.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The Dutch steamer Rotterdam, which arrived from Rotterdam, reports that during the embarkation of passengers the police authorities made a search for Count Walsin Esterhazy, who was said to be stopping in a hotel at Rotterdam, trying to escape to America.

Women nowadays do not have to use a stream of water for a looking-glass. They have modern mirrors that will tell them very promptly whether their beauty is fading. A woman's beauty fades very rapidly if she is troubled with some derangement of the distinctly feminine organism. Ignorance or carelessness in this respect frequently causes great suffering and irregularity in after life. Little irregularities and weaknesses in girlhood should be looked upon promptly and properly treated at once.

Mothers cannot be too conscientious in this respect, and cannot throw aside the prudery that is so prevalent upon this point too soon. Every young woman should know something about her own physical make-up, and the importance to her future of her local as well as general health. A woman who suffers from weaknesses peculiar to her sex will rapidly lose her beauty, her general health, her amiability and her usefulness and capability as a wife and housekeeper. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription promotes regularity of all feminine functions, gives sturdy health to the distinctly feminine organism and prepares it to meet the trials of wifehood and motherhood. The "Favorite Prescription" is not a cure-all. It is intended for but one class of disorders and is good for no other. Taken during the period of gestation, it makes parturition easy, and banishes the discomforts of the expectant months. All good medicine dealers sell it.

"I wish to express my thanks for the good I have received from Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. E. Scovill, of Bolton, Stephenson Co., Ills. "I have used it at different times for the last eight years. It is the best medicine for expectant mothers. I never tried it for that until my last baby. I had been very bad, almost helpless. I could not get out of bed alone, or even turn over. Last December I commenced taking the 'Favorite Prescription,' and could soon get in and out of bed as well as at any time. On March 29th I gave birth to an eleven pound boy without pain, and have since been as well and healthy as I ever was."

M'COY KNOCKED OUT BY SHARKEY.

Bull Strength Won the Fight in the Tenth Round.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—After a terrific battle, Tom Sharkey knocked Kid McCoy out in the tenth round last night before the Lenox Athletic Club. Sharkey won purely on his bull strength and iron endurance. McCoy knocked him down with a terrible blow on the jaw in the third round, and as the sailor, dazed and groggy, struggled to his feet the Kid again sent him to the canvas. The gong saved Sharkey from a knock-out, and he came up strong after a minute's rest. The fighting was furious till the eighth round, when McCoy began to show signs of distress, his strength being exhausted. The end came in the tenth round, when Sharkey landed a left hook on McCoy's jaw that sent him down and out.

After the fight Sharkey made the following statement:

"I won this fight fair and square. I simply knocked the man out and did it in good time. I thought I would win in about the tenth round and told my seconds so. My eye was blacked a little, but otherwise I am not hurt.

"The blow that knocked me down was a dandy, but I knew I would recuperate. The Kid can hit hard, and is fast, but I have some speed myself, and as for hitting, I let the public judge of that matter.

"When I got up from the knockdown blow I was still strong, and the one minute's rest put me all right again. McCoy is a good, game fellow, and I give him all the credit in the world, but he can't whip me, nor can any one else in the world. I think I am the best man in world, and believe I have deserved the championship—at least I have met them all and each time got the money. Nobody can say anything about the fight, but the fact that I knocked my man out. I am ready to fight anybody for the championship of the world."

Kid McCoy said: "I am defeated, but I still think I can whip the man who got the decision. I had Sharkey practically knocked out in the third round, as any one who saw the fight will agree to, but I made the mistake of being too cautious and waiting for a better opportunity to finish the job. The blow he struck me which sent me down was one of his wild swings, all of which I had been able to avoid with ease, and it was entirely a chance that it landed. However, it did land, was effective and it is my fault. But as I said before, I still think I can whip Sharkey, and will do so if I get another chance. I don't like to make any charge of foul work against any opponent, but I was struck twice very low. Of course I am heartbroken over the result, but it can't be helped.

"I realize that I was up against a hard game in going against a man considerably heavier than myself, but any one who saw the third round of the fight will agree with me when I say I have got a very good chance to defeat Mr. Sharkey if we meet again."

Referee Tim Hurst said: "There were no fouls committed. If there had been I should have disqualified the man who committed it. The blow of which there is some question was planted in the pit of the stomach and sent McCoy to the ground. I saw it land. The fighting all through was very fair, and the men broke cleanly when ordered to. McCoy was counted out while lying on the ropes in the tenth round and I had already awarded the fight to Sharkey before McCoy was upon his feet. Sharkey did not know this at the time, and I was busy counting out the seconds over McCoy, and had no idea that Sharkey would punch him again, but the Sailor lost his head and struck McCoy a swipe on the back of the head which knocked him down again, and I was as mad as I could be when I saw it done."

In all reports McCoy was quoted as favorite, and favorite he was as far as talk went until the crowd gathered at the ringside. Sharkey's backers had waited to do their betting, and came expecting to get odds of 5 to 4. They were all disappointed, for the only bets placed at the odds mentioned were of small sums and the men who had real money to wager on the sailor's chances finished by taking even money. Some few men who needed extra inducements to take the chance, got 10 to 9 for some small amounts. Practically it was a dead even thing between the boxers. The talent lined up strongly on McCoy's side, and until the men entered the ring Joe Vendig, Joe Ullman, Jimmy Kelly, Fred Walbaum, Bob Kase and Ike Thompson, on the south side of the ring, were ready to bet even money on McCoy as long as they could find takers. Their refusal to lay odds had a very apparent effect on the speculation, for the smaller fry followed the lead of the big fellows.

The biggest bet of the night was $2,500 even, Andy Platt taking McCoy against Sharkey for Morris Jacob of Cincinnati. Fred Walbaum put $500 on McCoy against $450 put up by P. Weigler of Pittsburg, but the bet was made early in the evening, and Walbaum did not repeat at the odds. Isidore Wormser placed $560 on McCoy at even money, but to do it had to take several bets of $100 or more. Joe Vendig bet $1,000 even on McCoy with George Kessler and wanted more, but the one bet was enough for Kessler. Dave Gideon laid $3,500 in bits for Vendig, made with a number of patrons of boxing. Vendig bet $2,000 to $1,800 early in the day.

Joe Ullman, who laid 10 to 9 on McCoy until Tuesday afternoon, contented himself with betting even money at the ringside and got $2,000 by accommodating a number of betters who came forward with small wagers. Bob Kase took McCoy for as much as he could get at even money and managed to swell the total of his wager to $2,500. Senator Tim Sullivan took Tom O'Rourke's tip and bet $1,000 on Sharkey. Tom O'Rourke, who had $1,800 bet on Sharkey against $2,000 with Joe Vendig, swelled this amount by betting $300 more with H. Shultz.

Jim Corbett, seated in a box, got a bet of $500 even, taking McCoy's end, and wanted $500 more. About that time the Sharkey money seemed to run short and the McCoy people, who wanted to bet at even were begging for takers. There was still some little betting just at the time the men entered the ring, but hardly enough to establish a price, the figures ranging from 10 to 9 on McCoy to even money.

SENATOR HOAR ON THE PHILIPPINES.

Writes a Letter Telling How He Would Solve the Problem.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

FRANKLIN, Mass., Jan. 11.—Joseph G. Ray of this town a short time ago wrote to Senator Hoar asking for an expression from him as to what the United States should do in the matter of holding the Philippines. Senator Hoar replied that he would assist the inhabitants of the islands to establish the form of government which they desire, and then withdraw. The letter from Senator Hoar is in part as follows:

"I have your letter of December 27th, in which you ask what I would recommend doing with the Philippine islands now that we have them in our possession. In the first place, we have not got them in our possession, and in order to get them into our possession, as I understand it, we have got to subdue the inhabitants. We have driven the Spanish army from one port in a single island out of 1,200 where they were already hemmed in by the insurgents. We possess that port and one or two similar places.

"We have under control a population of perhaps 100,000 or 125,000 persons out of 10,000,000 or 12,000,000.

"What I would do with them is exactly this: I would offer the insurgent leaders, who seem to be the stronger parties in these islands, our aid in establishing such form of settled government as they desire, and leave them a sufficient military force to restore order; I would compel the renunciation of sovereignty there by Spain as we have in the case of Cuba, and then, after the Government is fairly set up, I would leave the islands to the care of themselves.

"I suppose there may be a good deal of turbulence and disorder, but I think in the course of time a permanent settled government will be evolved. If it were necessary I would have an understanding with the great powers of the world that we would all join in promoting and guaranteeing such a result."

NEW FACTOR IN NEVADA FIGHT.

A. C. Cleveland Says He Is Out for the Senatorship.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

CARSON, Nev., Jan. 11.—Yesterday the Senatorial fight was enlivened by the presence of A. C. Cleveland of White Pine county. He says he is a full-fledged candidate for United States Senator from a Republican standpoint, and that if things became mixed to any extent, that he has a few surprises in store for the Newlands and Stewart stalwarts.

The Newlands forces were rather upset by the non-arrival of Waldsam Sharon, who was held in Virginia City by a snowstorm which has been in progress all day.

The Stewart faction is now confining itself to a literary bureau, and will flood Nevada with all kinds of campaign literature in the next few days. As the wires have been down most of the day, little or no outside news has been received by either side.

It is the rumor this evening at the Newlands headquarters that what force Mr. Cleveland has will be turned to Mr. Newlands, thus giving him two votes.

A Legislative caucus will probably be held on Sunday night.

AN AZTEC TEMPLE FOUND IN EL PASO.

A Scientist Is Unearthing a Buried Village of the Ancients.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 11.—An Aztec temple long buried beneath the surface of the earth has been uncovered within the limits of this city, according to Dr. Leon Berson, a graduate of Oxford University and an archaeologist of note, who is connected with the Prepatro University at the City of Mexico. At his own solicitation he was sent by the Mexican Government to search for the remains of an Aztec temple and village which he learned from ancient records in the archives of Mexico were situated somewhere near here on the left bank of the Rio Grande.

Recently the scientist unearthed several stones covered with hieroglyphics within the corporate limits of the town, and at a depth of ten feet a wall of solid masonry was uncovered.

The scientist is confident he has discovered the Aztec temple, and expects to unearth many relics of great value. Dr. Berson has discovered many valuable relics in Mexico, among them the famous God Paxel, now in the City of Mexico, and a number of tablets of stone covered with hieroglyphics which when deciphered proved to be of great benefit historically.

British Columbia Politics.

Associated Press Dispatches by

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 11.—After great excitement and continued strenuous obstruction by the opposition, the election petitions bill was passed by the British Columbian government last night by a vote of 18 to 15.

Chimney a Failure.

The new chimney which makes the place of that destroyed in the City Hall by the New Year's fire is a failure. No fire can be lighted in the Board of Education room, the flue of which connects with the chimney. The chimney does not draw, and the attempt to make it do so filled the room with smoke.

HIGHWAYMEN AND BURGLARS.

Bold Attempt to Rob an East Oakland Residence.

Last night, about midnight, Charles Jugels who resides at 461 Nineteenth street was held up by a couple of foot-pads on Eighteenth street near Telegraph avenue. Jugels was ordered to throw up his hands, an injunction with which he complied. He was then relieved of $3.20 which he had in his pocket. Jugels was unable to give an accurate description of his assailants to the police.

BURGLARS AT WORK.

Last Sunday night, there was a bold attempt made to burglarize the residence of William Hoffschneider at Highland Park. It was frustrated by Edward Hoffschneider, the son of the owner of the place, and W. W. Curtis, who happened to be in the house at the time. William Hoffschneider had a few days previously, moved to San Francisco leaving his Highland Park home in charge of his daughter. A few days later, his son Edward, arrived from Arizona and took up his residence in the house. Curtis who is a Japanese interpreter, also resides there. Sunday night these two men heard some one, evidently a stranger walking in the room which Mr. Hoffschneider uses as an office. In this office there is a safe and in it were valuable papers. Hoffschneider and Curtis started to investigate. As Hoffschneider went down stairs, he was struck in the head by a man who then ran away. Another man rushed out of the front part of the house about the same time. Hoffschneider and Curtis followed the fugitives and emptied their revolvers after them. The shots was returned by the burglars but no damage was sustained by either party.

CRUISERS MAY BE SENT TO DEWEY.

Crack Gunboats Also at the Disposal of the Admiral.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says:

Naval officers are considering the advisability of dispatching the cruisers Detroit, Marblehead and Montgomery to Manila, but will probably first cable to Admiral Dewey and ascertain if the vessels already attached to his command are sufficient for his purposes. The vessels so far ordered include the gunboats Yorktown, Bennington, Princeton, Castine and Helena. The Machias will be attached to his command as soon as the repairs are completed. The gunboat Marietta may also go.

The Detroit class will be splendid vessels for service against the Filipinos, having a draft of only fourteen feet seven inches, and being supplied with rapid-fire batteries. They will not be sent to the East, however, unless Admiral Dewey informs the Government that he needs more vessels.

Significant attention is being given by the War Department to transports. At the request of Secretary Alger, Captain Charles O'Neill, Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance, has loaned two six-pounder rapid-fire guns to the War Department, which will be placed on the transports going to Manila. These vessels will then be able to support any movement of the army.

RUN DOWN BY A RECKLESS DRIVER.

Mrs. Charles Braham was run over by a delivery wagon at Twelfth and Washington streets last evening and seriously injured. Mrs. Bruhm was crossing Twelfth street, accompanied by her little sister. When she saw the team approaching at a high rate of speed she shoved the little girl out of the way, but could not escape herself. The wagon struck her, knocking her down, and while she lay prostrate upon the pavement the careless driver whipped his team into a gallop, escaping before he could be recognized.

A cab was called and the injured woman was taken to her home on Kirkham street. Dr. Mauzy was summoned, and upon examination found that the unfortunate woman had sustained a broken kneecap, several deep scalp wounds, and probably severe internal injuries.

Although the careless driver made good his escape, the police have the matter in hand and a rigid investigation will doubtless lead to the discovery and punishment of the guilty one.

Suit for a Divorce.

Alfred Bushell has brought suit for divorce from Jane Bushell.

MRS. SATHER SUES DINGEE.

Claims He Owes Her a Large Sum of Money.

Mrs. Jane K. Sather has commenced suit against W. J. Dingee for $113,068.08, alleging that this is due her owing to Dingee's management of her property interests. The complaint was filed late yesterday afternoon.

The association of Mr. Dingee with Mrs. Sather's estate dates back to the inheritance of $100,000 she received at the death of her husband, Pedar Sather, the banker. At that time Mrs. Sather put all her business affairs in the hands of Mr. Dingee. She now owns a corner upon Washington and Fourteenth streets which alone is valued at $125,000, while she also has other interests which materially increase her income. However, Mrs. Sather says there is more money due her, but this Mr. Dingee flatly denies.

The complaint starts with the recital that in May, 1887, Mrs. Sather employed Dingee as her agent to handle, under her direction, her large property interests, including real estate, stocks and valuable securities. In this connection the complaint recites:

"Soon after the defendant had commenced the discharge of such duty as a real estate agent and broker he represented and thence continually to plaintiff that said defendant had great capacity and ability in the management, purchase and sale of real estate, stocks and securities, and that if permitted by plaintiff he could and would take from her the whole care and responsibility of the management of her properties and buy and sell and manage to her profit.

"During that period the defendant represented to her, and from time to time said that if given complete charge of her affairs and property he would relieve her from all care, would be her friend, and, in fact, her banker, so that, and to that end, he would return true and accurate accounts of his transactions, and she could when desired draw on him as she would a bank."

The plaintiff states that she had full confidence in Dingee as he had been employed as a broker and financial agent by her late husband, and as she trusted him as a friend on July 21, 1888, she gave him full control of real estate, bonds and securities to the value of $150,000, which he retained until June 1, 1897. On May 10, 1897, Mrs. Sather alleges that she gave Dingee a receipt in full endorsing all transactions in her interest from June, 1891.

Continuing, the complaint reads:

"Plaintiff charges that defendant received large and considerable sums of money for the use and benefit of plaintiff, none of which or any part thereof has been accounted for or paid to plaintiff; that at divers and sundry times the said defendant appropriated to his own use considerable sums of money and property coming into his hands as the agent of plaintiff, and in the course and conduct of the business so intrusted to him, no part of which has ever been accounted for or paid to plaintiff."

It is charged that Dingee made sales and purchases of real estate, mortgages and releases and received the sum of $113,068.08, which is yet to be accounted for. On December 28th the plaintiff claims she made a demand for the amount, but that Dingee refused to meet her demands, denying that he owed her anything.

Mr. Dingee is not at all worried over this action. He treats the matter very lightly.

"I do not owe Mrs. Sather one cent," he declared today. "That is all I have to say about it. The receipts and vouchers are all ready to be produced, and if the matter comes up in court I can soon prove that her claims are ridiculous and absolutely wrong. As I said, I do not owe her a cent."

Mrs. Sather's attorneys are John A. Sanborn and A. A. Moore.

FELL OCCASIONALLY.

At Church Suppers, Weddings and Parties.

"The minister liked coffee. His long Sabbath day's work was begun with a cup of the strongest coffee and ended in the same way. Gradually the physical and mental machinery became clogged, tongue coated, dull headaches and a general depressed condition of the system, turned his delightful occupation into a dreary treadmill.

Mrs. JAMES E. BUTLER.
Sheridan, Michigan.
The Minister's Wife.

One day his attention was brought to the fact that the unsuspected coffee was very likely the cause of his trouble, and it was suggested that if he would use Postum Food Coffee and induce the good wife to be particular to boil it long enough to extract the delicious flavor and the elements which go to rebuild the broken down nerve centers, his trouble would be gone.

This was two years and a half ago, and since that time not a pound of coffee has been purchased by the minister's family. Morning, noon and night Postum makes its appearance on the table, and is enjoyed by all. With the departure of coffee went the minister's bad feelings, and with the coming of Postum, came a feeling of exhilaration, a better appetite and a constantly increasing weight.

From the start, the minister's Postum has been properly made, because of the warning.

At one time during the absence of house-wife, the domestic, not being particular about preparing Postum according to directions, made it weak and insipid, which we find is a very common complaint among those who do not understand that there is no way to extract the delicious flavor from Postum except by long boiling. Made properly, it is clear, black and has a crisp, pungent, fascinating taste. Occasionally the minister has been induced to drink a cup of coffee at weddings, parties, etc., but many sleepless hours of the night are passed in consequence. This is a true experience."

PROCEEDINGS OF THE REGENTS.

Vote Not to Ask for an Administration Building.

BERKELEY, Jan. 11.—At the meeting of the Board of Regents of the Berkeley University yesterday afternoon in San Francisco it was decided not to ask the Legislature for an appropriation of $100,000 for an administration building on the University grounds. The Committee on Legislation had incorporated the proposition in its report, but the recommendation was not concurred in by a vote of five to four.

The rest of the report was adopted and provides for the following appropriations: Addition to the chemical laboratory, $5,000; students' observatory, $1,500; gymnasium, $3,000; auditorium, $20,000; bridges on the university grounds, $2,000; improvement of Oxford street, $6,000; water supply system, $20,000; reimbursement for agricultural department building, $12,020; forestry stallions for two years, $5,000; viticultural stallions for two years, $5,000; veterinarian, two years, $5,000; dairy instructor, two years, $5,000; farmers' institute, two years, $10,000; improvement of surroundings and grounds of the Affiliated Colleges, $22,000.

As a result of President Martin Kellogg's petition, Alain Putzker, head of the German department, Professor Irving Stringham, head of the mathematical department and dean of the University, and Professor George W. Howison, head of the philosophical department, were all granted leave for a year with full pay. All three will go to Europe, there to refresh themselves in their particular specialties.

ALAMEDA NEWS.

There were no Los Gatos or Santa Cruz trains yesterday, owing to a serious washout on the narrow-gauge track on the marsh just beyond the trestle across San Leandro bay. The track was impassable for a distance of 180 feet. The place is known as the "sink," and the railroad company has spent thousands of dollars in filling it in without being able to get a solid bottom for the road-bed. A big crew was at work all day repairing the damage, and the track will be in good shape again shortly.

The Park Hotel narrowly escaped destruction by fire at midnight Monday night. The crossing of a telegraph wire leading into the office of the narrow-gauge railroad with one of the city's electric light wires burned the switchboard away, and the flames communicated to the woodwork of the hotel in which the railroad office is located. Landlord Todd discovered the blaze and gave the alarm. There was a panic among the guests for a time, but the Fire Department soon extinguished the flames. The railroad office was wrecked, and the damage to the hotel was about $200.

Lovers of good football will see a grand game next Saturday afternoon in Alameda between two of the crack teams of the State, if not of the Pacific Coast, when the Alameda lads meet the San Rafael eleven. The home team has defeated with ease every eleven that has had the temerity to buckle it this season, its last victory being over the heavy-weight Reliance Club team of Oakland. The San Rafael boys are husky fellows who have been mowing a swath through the ranks of their opponents, and a fierce struggle is a certainty when the teams crash together.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT METHODIST CHURCH.

An interesting revival service was held last evening in the lower parlors of the Methodist Church. Dr. Dille led the short prayer service, and Professor and Mrs. Dobbins had charge of the singing.

Dr. Chapman, under whose direction the revivals are being conducted, delivered a short address full of words of warning and advice.

Dr. Chapman began his talk by drawing a few instances from personal experience illustrative of the fact that God works often through just such sifted meetings as greeted the speaker last night, owing to the rain.

"Sifted meetings are very often the best," he said. He then related the story of a girl, to whom he was anxious to administer the faith, but who was kept away from his influence one night by the rain. On the very night the principal of the college at which the girl lived accomplished the purpose herself.

"I defy the rain to overcome the holy spirit," said the doctor, in great enthusiasm.

Having drawn a lesson from the rain and the meager attendance, Dr. Chapman drew a text from the Bible. He read part of the story of Naman and commented upon it with considerable eloquence. He declared leprosy to be a type of sin and went well into the meaning and loathesomeness of sin.

The meeting was a success, despite the small attendance. Similar gatherings will be held all week; afternoons at 3, evenings at 7:30. Dr. Dille and Dr. Chapman will lead the revival service; Professor and Mrs. Dobbins will conduct the singing.

DAMAGE SUIT FOR PERSONAL INJURIES.

A jury was impaneled yesterday in Judge Ogden's court to try the case of Mrs. Englielmina Lee Proti against the Realty Syndicate Company for $25,000 for personal injuries.

Mrs. Proti is a widow and conducts a laundry with the assistance of her daughter. Some time ago she claims she received personal injuries on the Piedmont line, owing to the company's negligence. The daughter testified as to the extent of her mother's injuries and the consequent loss of custom sustained owing to her mother's illness. The trial is in progress to-day.

Married In Court.

An epidemic of marriages struck the Justices' Courts yesterday. City Justice J. W. Stetson performed three ceremonies as follows: Harry A. Hughes and Ida M. Olson of San Francisco; Manuel Ellencost of Santa Cruz and Christina Velrra of San Leandro, and James Powers and Mary Holman of San Francisco.

Judge Quinn united in marriage John Johnson and May Braman of San Francisco and Deputy Constable William Howlet and Mary E. Carroll.

HE ESCAPES THE HANGMAN.

Cheeseman Again Declared Insane and Sent to an Asylum.

Frank H. Cheeseman, the slayer of H. J. Brooke, has again been declared insane by a jury of twelve men.

He was brought back from the asylum to stand trial on a charge of murder.

His trial was to have been taken up today. Attorney Thomas Garrity, however, had his client tried yesterday to determine his sanity.

The same witnesses who testified at the previous commitment testified yesterday. After being out an hour and a half the jury returned a verdict that the defendant is insane.

Cheeseman was then committed to the asylum at Napa by Judge Hall.

The prosecution made no attempt to fight the case, as they were already convinced of Cheeseman's insanity.

It is not likely that Cheeseman will ever be punished for the murder of Brooke.

WORKING FOR CONSOLIDATION.

Many People have Signed the Petition of the Merchants.

At the meeting of the Merchants' Exchange last night, Vice President Brown presided.

There was an attendance, smaller than usual, on account, doubtless, of the storm.

It was announced that Ex-District Attorney Snook would immediately prepare a bill to be introduced into the Legislature, to authorize county Supervisors to built tunnels as well as bridges.

Director Lea gave his experience in circulating, in Alameda, the petition for consolidation. He declared that nearly every man he met over there was opposed to the project.

Mr. Sohst said that Alameda was more in debt than Oakland was, and that the wool was being pulled over the eyes of the people on the other side of the harbor.

Mr. Wixson declared that taxes in Alameda were higher than they were in Oakland.

Mr. Sohst from the Committee on Consolidation presented the following report which was adopted:

"Your Committee on Consolidation beg leave to report the following:

"Nearly every man approached with the petition is eager to sign it with remarks, such as, 'I am sorry that I cannot sign it twenty times,' or 'Fifteen or twenty years ago, we ought to have had this change,' and similar expressions. Your committee also, will add that our present form of government was well enough when Oakland was a village; when the county seat was at San Leandro; when all the city officials worked for glory, with one exception, the city marshal. He received pay, but the office was so lean that he had to keep a carriage and wagon shop, and was obliged to rake off his coat, and strike the iron while it was hot in order to make ends meet. This was in the good old times, when business was brisk. The city marshal was also assessor, tax collector, treasurer, etc. Colonel John Scott was Chief of the Fire Department, whose only apparatus was buckets. There were no macadamized streets in Oakland.

"Little by little, things have changed and, instead of having one salaried officer, a City Marshal, we support an expensive city government, and that is one reason that capital and population are kept out of Oakland, for it means high taxes and interest, and nothing in return for it. But, better late than never, it now becomes the duty of every one who has influence to use all his energy to bring this project to a successful issue; this is the time for action. This is the voice of the people of Oakland, and let no one stand in the way of their aim at progress, for one hundred thousand people can not be ruled by a few, with selfish motives, any longer. Your committee has come to this conclusion, from the sentiments expressed by the signers of the petition. If Mr. Kelly and the rest of the Alameda delegation, are still in doubt as to the wishes of the people, I will remove that doubt by referring them to the great number of signers to the petition."

The directors endorsed a communication on the up-building of American shipping.

A communication on anti-imperialism was filed.

MRS. WETHERBEE ELECTED REGENT.

At the annual meeting of the Sequoia Club, Daughters of the Revolution, of San Francisco, which is the mother chapter of the order in California, Mrs Henry Wetherbee who was formerly regent for three years but who resigned some time ago, was unanimously elected regent.

The Sequoia chapter has a room beautifully fitted up in the Sorosis Club, 1620 California street. A very rare and valuable collection of old colonial relics has recently been purchased, and is now on exhibition in the rooms of the society.

Mrs. Wetherbee has presented the club with a somewhat historical eagle. During the last Presidential campaign two large eagles made an ascent in a balloon from Blair's Park. The trip was entirely successful and the descent was made somewhere on the Contra Costa hills. One was sent by a prominent local politician to President McKinley, after his election, and the other was presented to Mrs. Wetherbee. This beautiful bird will spend the remainder of his lifeless days adorning a corner of the Sequoia Club. It bears a small American flag in its beak, which it will uphold for an indefinite period.

DELEGATES ARE SELECTED.

The Municipal League Adopts a Platform for Campaign.

City Convention Will Select a Ticket Friday.

The Municipal League met last night at Masonic Temple, on Twelfth and Washington streets, and adopted a platform for its campaign.

A nominationg convention consisting of ten members from each ward and three alternates was also appointed and approved by the League. The committee will meet next Friday evening to nominate candidates for the city offices. The following is the platform adopted:

OBJECTS OF THE LEAGUE.

"The Citizens' Municipal League party claims no patronage from office holders, but seeks to appoint faithful and honest agents to administer the municipal revenue.

"Its object is to exercise a beneficial influence in the administration of the municipal government by holding its officers to a strict accountability in the discharge of their duties; by all lawful means to restrain them from acts detrimental to the public welfare; to see that the laws are justly and thoroughly executed; to secure the passage of good laws, and to prevent the enactment of all laws adverse to the public interest, with an intention and desire solely to promote the best interests and welfare of the city of Oakland as a whole.

NOT SECTIONAL.

"This League is not sectional, but is for the whole city. It hopes to bring about unity and harmony in all the interests of the city. It recognizes no north, south, east or west in Oakland. All sections are called upon to work together for repairing and sprinkling the streets; for selecting, purchasing, and constructing parks and boulevards accessible to all the inhabitants; for cleansing and rendering sanitary all the marshes and dumping grounds; for erecting and keeping in repair school houses convenient for all the children of the city; for purchasing, repairing and keeping in readiness for use sufficient fire hose and fire extinguishing apparatus to protect all districts of the city; for hydrants and water for fire protection accessible from all parts of the city; for free library and reading rooms in all parts of the city. In all these and many other respects no section of the city should be more favored than another.

FAVORS NO PARTY.

"This League favors no parties or cliques, no Democrats, Republicans or Populists, only residents of Oakland, and such are all invited to unite to build up Oakland and help to administer its government economically, progressively, honestly and wisely. All citizens are invited to meet in the League upon a common ground and to redeem the city government from the destruction threatened by the apparent effort of party leaders to parcel out city affairs to incompetent and inexperienced men as a reward for political service; but citizens are not asked to abandon party fealty in elections for county, State or national offices.

ALL CITIZENS SHOULD UNITE.

"This League claims that all good citizens should unite for an honest, economical and progressive municipal government; that they should not divide on political lines, where no political principles are involved, and thereby permit the city to become an easy prey to the wiles of the professional politician.

"We claim that no principle of any State or national political party is involved in the management of a municipality, which is necessarily concerned in the construction of streets and sewers; in the management of fire, police and school departments; in the enforcement of health and sanitary regulations, and in the collection and expenditure of revenue.

POLITICAL PARTIES.

"We claim that it is destructive of the success and progress of a State and national party, and is beyond its province, to take part in the enforcement of municipal measures, for when any party has been formed for the promotion of doctrines and principles in which a nation or even a State is concerned, it is surely imperiling the strength and usefulness of the party, and inviting discord within its ranks to declare itself for or against measures effecting a city or town in a State, or effecting only local interests, in which only the votes of a single locality are effected; such as the paving of streets of a city or town; the purchasing of land for a city park; the conduct of public schools, the collection or expenditure of taxes.

"Thus the reason is evident, as we claim, why local parties should be avoided by State and national political parties, and should be left to municipal leagues and similar local organizations, where party lines shall not be drawn among the members.

CONCERNING TAXES.

"This League demands the raising and expenditure of a sufficient revenue each year, and no more, to give this city an honest, economical but progressive government in every department.

PARKS AND BOULEVARDS.

"This League is in favor of the purchase of land for parks and boulevards on such terms as would be accepted by a prudent business man; and is also in favor of purchasing, filling in and improving such marsh lands as are a menace to the health of this city.

"And it also in favor of the early improvement of Lake Merritt, but insists, as it did in 1893, that no improvements of any kind, at any time, should be allowed that will diminish the water area of the lake.

WATER RATES.

"This League denounces the action of the present City Council, for the unusual and hasty manner in which the water rates were last fixed by it, and for establishing water rates so unreasonably high.

"And we contrast this action of the Council with the action of the former Councils in which the nominees of this League reduced the water rates to the lowest ever known in this city, after a complete and public investigation.

"And we believe it is the intention of our State constitution to provide for the fixing of water rates on the basis of there being in a city but one water company of sufficient capacity to supply water for all purposes, within the city, and that an increase in the number of water companies was not intended to be the occasion of an increase of water rates paid.

"We pledge our nominees to establish water rates on this basis, until some different construction is placed on the constitution by the courts of this State.

WATER FRONT.

"Oakland's position on the bay of San Francisco has marked it for a great maritime city. No great maritime city has ever existed and none can exist unless its harbor is free from private control and ownership. It is immaterial whether the city or the State has control of the harbor.

"The correct theory upon which water fronts are established is not that the State nor the city shall be benefited by the payment into its treasury for general use of any tolls or wharfage collected. This is illustrated in the laws governing the harbor of San Francisco, which provide that no greater amount of money shall ever be collected for tolls and wharfage than shall be necessary to construct and maintain wharves and pay incidental expenses. And this is what is meant by a free port.

"It is therefore a matter of no importance to the tax-payers of Oakland whether the harbor is under the control of the State or of the city.

"The object of the water front litigation was to secure for Oakland a free port—to take away from private individuals and private corporations the right to levy or collect tolls on the commerce to be conducted on its water front.

"The Mayor and Council elected in 1893, through the efforts of this League, found that a private corporation was in possession and control, and claiming to be the absolute owner of the water front of the city to a point twenty-four feet in depth in the bay, beyond which point no wharf or pier could be constructed; that such private corporation and its grantors had been for more than forty years in such possession and control and claiming such ownership, with the consent and connivance of preceding Councils elected by the Republican and Democratic parties; that if the necessary steps were not taken by the people of Oakland to correct these conditions such possession and control and claim of ownership would continue forever; and that the property owners of Oakland were the parties interested in finding out whether a private corporation should for all time levy and collect tolls on the commerce of the city.

"The Mayor and Council so elected in 1893, true to their pledges, decided that Oakland should not wait for the State or the property owners of Siskiyou or San Diego or San Francisco to take the necessary steps to redeem the water front, and that if anything was ever to be done to dislodge the incubus it would have to be done by Oakland.

"On a tax levy of $1.12 on the $100 in each year, 1893 and 1894, (the levy under political party administration of 1892 was $1.24 and of the present year $1.21) the Mayor and Council defrayed all the expenses of the city government for the years 1893 and 1894, and paid in full special attorneys to take charge of the water front litigation through all courts, State and Federal, within the State of California.

"The result of the litigation thus far is that on September 12, 1897, the Supreme Court of this State decided that private ownership of the water front lands of Oakland cannot extend below ordinary low tide; thus securing the water, where wharves and landings must be constructed, for the exclusive control of the people of the State.

"While it is hoped that this decision may be modified upon further consideration so that such private ownership will be limited to the ordinary high tide, yet if nothing more can be gained than that which is announced in the above decision, with the opening of all streets to the line of low tide, the right of private individuals or private corporations to control or levy tolls on the commerce of Oakland is forever destroyed and the prosperity of Oakland in the ages that are to come is firmly secured.

"No one but a subservient tool of some corporation or an unworthy trimmer politically can have the audacity to say that this League has accomplished nothing or that it has been a detriment to the city. The truth is, it has saved the very life of the city.

"The League pledges its candidates to assist the water front attorneys (who are already paid for all services to be rendered as aforesaid), to press the water front suits to a speedy conclusion, to yield therein no advantage already gained, to employ every effort to secure such further and additional rights as are in accord with law and justice, and to insist on a final judicial disposition of the whole water front question, including the opening of all streets to points where public wharves and landings must be constructed.

PUBLIC UTILITIES.

"This League favors the principle of ownership of public utilities, especially in the matter of water supplies, and pledges its nominees to work for the acquisition of a water supply under municipal ownership at an early date as is possible.

CONSOLIDATION.

"This League pledges itself in favor of the consolidation of the city and county government at the earliest practical moment.

PURPOSE OF PLATFORM.

"Therefore, in the hope of bettering the condition of our municipal government, this League has invited the citizens hereafter named, not asking or knowing their political preferences, to meet in convention with its Central Committee of managers, and nominate a full ticket for city officers, to be voted for at the election to be held on the 13th day of March, A. D. 1899.

"The ticket to be made up of men who will devote themselves to a clean, progressive and business like management of the city's affairs, with the sole intent of promoting the general good of all our citizens.

"CARY HOWARD,
"President.

"L. G. BURPEE, Secretary."

REPUBLICANS ARE AT WORK.

Delegates to the City Convention Will Be Appointed.

Citizens Committee to Suggest Names of Delegates.

The Republican Municipal Convention will be composed of appointed delegates, 143 in all. This was determined at a long session of the City Central Committee held last evening in the Blake and Moffitt building.

Harry Carleton, who has been in the East, was present, as were the other six members. It took three hours and a half to reach a definite conclusion, and then the members found it necessary to adjourn until Thursday evening in order to complete the plan outlined.

At that time a call will be issued for a convention to be held at an early day, though the date has not as yet been decided upon.

The committee preferred to follow the course of two years ago. Daniel Doody of the Sixth ward stood alone for a vote at the polls. He wanted primaries believing that such was the wish of the people. His efforts in this direction were defeated by a vote of six to one.

When the meeting was called to order by Chairman G. F. Williams, Committeeman P. H. Lake of the Second Ward presented a set of lengthy resolutions, the adoption of which would empower the committee to appoint delegates. To this Doody objected strongly, and after considerable discussion the resolutions were withdrawn. Then Doody made a motion that a call for primaries be issued. Meredith of the Fourth Ward seconded the motion out of courtesy and it was defeated by 6 to 1.

Meredith then moved that the delegates in the convention be appointed. The motion prevailed and its adoption was followed by discussion as to the method.

It was finally decided that each committeeman be allowed to choose three Republicans from his ward, these to appoint delegates subject to final ratification by the City Central Committee.

Meredith wanted the selections to be made at once and to have a call issued for a convention to be held upon Saturday night. This, however, did not meet with popular accord.

Then the question of appointment of delegates brought about another lengthy wrangle. Lake wanted a large number for the Second ward, owing to the increased territory through annexation.

After several suggestions and motions it was determined to first allow each ward fifteen delegates and then add one for each 150 votes cast at the last election for Gage. This makes the apportionment as follows:

First Ward	20
Second Ward	25
Third Ward	20
Fourth Ward	19
Fifth Ward	19
Sixth Ward	19
Seventh Ward	21
Total	143

More talk as to speedy action, followed and then again an effort was made to have the preliminary three from each ward named. However, some of the committeemen were unprepared for such quick action and so the matter was deferred until tomorrow night. At that time the twenty-one will be named and this new committee will be expected to report upon the Saturday evening following.

As announced in last evening's Tribune, the Republican City Central Committee does not intend to wait until the last minute to start the campaign. From present indications the city convention will be held in Elite Hall upon Monday evening.

WEST'S MINSTREL GIVE A FINE SHOW.

Last night West's Minstrels appeared at the Macdonough Theater before a large audience which was entertained and delighted to the close of the performance. It was an audience which was agreeable to look upon because of the heartiness with which it seemed to enjoy the witticisms, eccentricities and the music of the performers. The combination scored a success. It is the individual membership of a company that gives it standing with the public. Next to Mr. West, who is an ideal interlocutor, Ezra Kendall unquestionably stands first in the long list of celebrities composing the Minstrel Jubilee. Carroll Johnson is another universal favorite. In the combination of vocalist and dancer he is a marvel of ability and grace. In the musical first part were such artists as R. J. Jose, one of the most popular of American ballad singers; Clement Stewart, who joins Mr. West after years of recognition as the leading balladist of England, while he will be a severe loss to the Moore and Burgess Minstrels; H. W. Frillman, one of the best-known and most powerful of American bassos; Charles Kent, the popular baritone; Ed Gorman, Joseph Garland, and many others whose names are familiar to all who will be delighted that music of a high order is again to be a leading feature of minstrelsy. In the olio, in addition to Mr. Johnson, appeared such people as Tom Lewis, the clever delineator of negro comedy; the great Trovello, the remarkable ventriloquist, who, with his walking automatons, completely revolutionized all previous ideas of that familiar specialty; the Freeze Brothers, whose skillful tambourine spinning was startling in its novelty; McMahon and King, whose latest laughable absurdity bears the fun-promising title of "A Hot Time in Coon Town"; Charles M. Ernest, who joined with Mr. Lewis in a strong specialty.

There was also a score of acts that have been selected with but one idea in view, that of novelty and cleverness. The Company will appear here again to-night.

AT THE DEWEY.

At the Dewey last night there was another large audience to witness the performance of the Mohawk Minstrels. The audience was demonstrative in its applause. Every ballad was re-demanded and every act was encored. The Mahara Minstrels have always been favorites here. They have always given excellent performances, but they are more numerous and effective than ever now. The company plays here until next Sunday night, when the engagement comes to a close.

SUPERIOR COURT IS REVERSED.

Two decisions of the Superior Court of this county have been reversed in the Supreme Court by Judge Harrison, Judges Garoutte and Van Fleet concurred in both the decisions.

The first case was that of Sophia McFarland against Lulie Carr Holcomb and others in an action to establish a claim against the estate of William A. Holcomb, deceased, for services rendered in nursing and lodging deceased before his death. In the Superior Court a demurred of the defendant, on the ground that the complaint was ambiguous and uncertain, was sustained. The Superior Court has decided that according to the statutes this decision was not warranted and has ordered the Superior Court to over-rule the demurrer and give leave to the defendant to answer.

The other case was that of the California Improvement Company against Reynolds and others. The Supreme Court held that the validity of a contract is to be determined by its terms irrespective of the amount involved.

COUNTRY TEACHERS IS REMOVED.

The residents of the Castro Valley school district are having considerable trouble, and a great deal of talk has been caused by the action of the School Trustees, Peter Hoare and J. B. Parsons in requesting the resignation of Bert Proctor, who has taught the pupils and given satisfaction for the last nine years.

Miss Duncan of San Francisco has been appointed to fill the vacancy caused by Proctor's retirement. The election was a surprise to the parents, and a petition has been circulated and signed by many people living in the district, to be presented to the trustees asking for the re-instatement of Proctor. Trustee Kennedy voted to re-elect Proctor, but the votes of both Hoare and Parsons were given to the new candidate for the position.

HAWLEY HEIRS TO SETTLE DISPUTES.

The contest over the estate of Mrs. Mary C. Hawley will probably be dropped. The heirs are making arrangements to settle their difficulties among themselves. The estate consists of property in Napa of the value of $30,000. By the will the husband is left the bulk of the property. About a year ago some of the heirs brought suit to break the will, making sensational charges against Hawley. Will G. Hawkett is administrator of the estate.

WELLINGTON IS KING.

(Copyrighted.)

Of coal, of DUNSMUIR'S WELLINGTON we sing,
Of all the coals the WELLINGTON is king.
For range or stove, for furnace or for grate,
The WELLINGTON is prince and potentate.

One feature we desire to emphasize
(This fact 'twill pay you well to memorize):
For LASTING QUALITIES it is the best;
IT DOES LAST LONGER than do all the rest.

Easy to light, is hard and clean and clear,
For household purposes it has no peer.
Burns readily and makes a bright, hot fire,
In short, is everything that you desire.

The wise hotel man never makes mistakes,
And DUNSMUIR'S WELLINGTON he always takes.
The restauranteur, low grade coal refuses,
But DUNSMUIR'S WELLINGTON he always uses.

Established here for more than twenty years
By JAMES P. TAYLOR of the Pioneers.
Try DUNSMUIR'S WELLINGTON! give it a test.
The best is always cheapest—GET THE BEST.
